Powers of Hall were appointed to notify the nominee and escort him to the hall. While waiting for the other conventions to act the report of the resolutions committee was called for. The rules were suspended and the platform was read and adopted as a whole. Frank Ransom made an effort among the delegates to have the stock yards plank stricken out, but failed to get the required help. The salient planks of the platform are as follows:

'The policy to be pursued by the United States respecting foreign nations and people of the islands of the sea is one of great moment and far reaching in its consequences to present and future generations of our countrymen. It is of such magnitude that it should not be hastily determined and in view of the probability of the close of the war with Spain at an early date, we affirm that the wise course for this government to pursue with respect to its relations to the islands lost to Spain during the war would be to postpone consideration thereof until the conclusion of the war, to be then taken up for mature deliberation by the people when no public excitement exists. "The decision of the supreme court of the United States of Nebraska maximum freight rate case makes it more apparent than ever that the only true solution of the railroad problem is to be found in government ownership and we again declare and reaffirm our allegiance to the doctrine of government ownership of railroads, telegraphs and telephones. In the meantime we demand the limits of said decision. "We demand the enactment of a law prohibiting the issues of free railway passes to public officers and private citizens, except bona fide employes, or the acceptance of the same, and favors the furnishing by law of necessary traveling expenses to pub lic officials when engaged in the transaction enactment of a maximum rate law, granting the people all possible relief within the

of public business." "In contradistinction to the splendid rec ord of our populist official we point to the recent acts of their republican predecessors who have robbed Nebraska of a million dollars; filled state institutions with corruption and scandal; taken the patrimony of her school children and farmed it out to precinct "heelers" and small-bore politicians practiced nepotism in all its branches of her state government, and when finally driven from a thirty years' feast at the public crit smote the hand that had fed it and sough to injure the credit of the state by disma forebodings.

"The stock yards of South Omaha are necessarily patronized by the people of this state; its business is public and not private; the stock yards company charges extortionate prices for the services it renders and for the grain and hav it supplies; it has issued millions of dollars of watered stock on which the peole are compelled to pay interest, it refuses relief, it bribes legislatures, it plunders our people and has secured infunction against all laws which seek to pre vent its unjust exactions; it is a giant monopoly created by captains of industry.

"For these reasons we favor the owner ship of a stock yards at South Omaha by the state itself, such ownership to be se cured either by the purchase of the present yards, at its actual value, or the establish ment of another stock yards. And if the state cannot secure the ownership of the present stock yards at its actual value, then we favor a law levying an occupation tax against the stock yards company of a definite gross sum which shall be equal to of the company. The stock growers of Nebraska must no longer be compelled to pay dividends on fictitious capital which represents nothing but fraud and dishon-

The Omaha and St. Louis platforms are affirmed and loyalty to free coinage at 16 to 1 is reiterated. The pledge is made that corporations are to be stripped of the of issuing money, all money to be issued directly by the government. The attempt to retire the greenbacks is condemned. Government by injunction is denounced. The platform favors the coinage of the seigniorage, the issuance of treasury notes and the imposition of an income tax to pay the war expenses. The issuance of bonds is condemned. The republican party is arraigned for favoring monopolies in the revenue bill.

A vigorous prosecution of the war is favored. It declares for a north and south road to the gulf, the western states to unite in building and operating the same. Nebraska is congratulated for its prompt re sponse to the call for volunteers, and asks for an increase of pay for private soldiers. The populist congressmen and the state officers are endorsed. A reform in the system of assessment and taxation is demanded. The adoption of a constitutional amendmen is favored whereby the initiative and referendum will become part of the fundamental

The Glee club sang another song and im mediately afterward Mr. Poynter was called to the platform, being greeted with applause. Mr. Poynter said he did not desire to make a speech at this time. He thanked the convention for the honor conferred, de clared himself to be a populist who believed in populist principles and favored the union of all the silver forces. He intimated that after the other conventions had acted he might make a more extended speech. During the further delay the various counties sent up the names of their new state committeemen.

Pending the call on the selection of the committeemen Senator Allen took the platform and said there was a plank in the platform making a complimentary allusion which he desired corrected. He did not want to be termed the ablest populist in the United States. It placed him in an awkward position before the country. Being a delegate in the convention the adoption of such a resolution would hold him up to ridicule. He requested that the resolution be recommitted for correction. motion to recommit was adopted and the resolution was changed to suit the notions of Senator Allen. DEMOCRATS NOISY AND HAPPY.

Organize Amid a Great Flourish of Words and Demonstrations. LINCOLN, Aug. 2 .- (Special.) - When the democratic convention was called to order the Funke opera house was well filled with delegates and spectators, the latter predominating. There were a few women in the audience. On the stage large portraits of W. J. Bryan and Governor Holcomb were supported on easels on either side of the chairman's table, intended to indicate the union of the democrats and populists. The Douglas county delegation occupied the most prominent place, pre-empting the censection of the dress circle. Chairman J. C. Dahlman rapped for order at 2:30. He said the delegates had been INTENDED TO PLACATE THE DEMOCRATS sent to Lincoln to perform an important work, which would bring victory again in the state. He said the eyes of the nation, "as well as of Nebraska," are upon this state and predicted that if they were wise in their selection of a ticket the victory this fall would presage a grander victory under their popular leader, who is now fighting for the flag as he had always fought for the people. This was greeted with applause, but the proposition made by an enthusiastic delegate to give three cheers for Bryan was lost in the shuffle.

John Stevens of Hastings was made temporary chairman of the convention on recommendation of the state committee. Upon assuming the chair Mr. Stevens referred to the democrats as a part of the organization which destiny had called to look after the interests of Nebraska. The democratic party, he said, has been present at the birth of every other political party since the foundation of the government; has seen their heresies rise and fall, and has stood guard over the interests of the country and will continue to guard them as long as the entiment of "equal rights to all" finds lodgment in the human heart. He criticised the annexation of Hawaii as bringing into our country a class of people and a civilization against which congress has peen called upon to legislate. The democrats are for the maintenance of the Monroe doctrine, and while forbidding European powers from encroaching, agree on the part of this country not to encroach.

He complimented Senator Allen, a sentiment which was heartily applauded, and said the fusionist should be proud of the conduct of state affairs under the present administration, in turn criticizing the previous republican administration. He charged that the greatest confidence gome ever played on the people of the state was the campaign made by the republicans in 1896, when they sought to scare the people from supporting fusion by the cry of repudiation and then turned over to their numerous successors doctored books and empty treasury vaults.

Completing Organization. Lee Herdman was nominated for tempo rary chairman, but he declined to serve. P. M. Killen of Gage, O. W. Paten of Lancaster and M. C. Harrington of Lincoln were then nominated and all were chosen for the position. The names of the delegates handed to the secretary were declared to be the ones entitled to seats.

The secretaries checked up the credentials submitted and it was found that the following counties were not represented: Antelope, Banner, Blaine, Boone, Boyd, Chase, Deuel, Dundy, Garfield, Gosper, Grant, Haves, Hitchcock, Hooker, Keith, Keya Paha, Kimball, Logan, Loup, McPherson, Perkins, Polk, Rock, Scotts Bluff, Sherman Sioux, Thomas and Wheeler.

A committee on permanent organization was appointed composed of Samuel Startzer of Sarpy, E. B. Wilbur of Dakota, C. S. Jones of Lancaster, Ralph Clark of Richardson and C. J. Bowlby of Saline.

W. H. Thompson of Hall moved that a committee of seven on resolutions be appointed at once that its report might be presented while the convention was intact, and that prevailed. The chair appointed W H. Thompson of Hall, I. J. Dunn of Douglas Joseph Oberfelder of Cheyenne, A. Gilber of York, A. C. Shellenberger of Harlan, W. H. Kelliger of Richardson and C. Hollenbeck

Attorney General Smyth addressed th convention while the committee on resolutions was absent. His appearance was heartily cheered by the convention.

He told the delegates he was prepared to give an account of his stewardship and to stand sponsor for the stewardship of his fellow state officers. In fulfilling the latter portion of his promise he quoted figures to all the interest paid on the watered stock prove how the other state officers bave been placed in their hands. State Treasurer Meserve, State Auditor Cornell, Land Com missioner Wolfe, Secretary of State Porter and Superintendent Jackson each in turn came in for generous compliments at the hands of Mr. Smyth.

The attorney general went on to defend the State Board of Transportation. He said the board has done much more than it has been given credit for. It has restored carload rates, which brought inestimable relief to the stock growers of Nebraska. It has not reduced rates because republican courts have tied the hands of the board so t cannot move an inch. A modification of the supreme court's decree has recently been obtained, giving the board limited power and it is now at work taking testinony on which to base a reduction.

Referring to his own work, Mr. Smyth said it had not been pleasant to him, for it is not agreeable to send fellow citizens to the penitentiary. It has to be done, how ever, or the laws of the state will be nockery and protection to life and property will be insecure. He reviewed the Bartley and Moore trials, the cases against their bondsmen and the suits with the stock yards and other corporations. The republicans, he said, have promised bring new men and new blood into their party councils this year. He challenged hem to nominate B. S. Baker for governor He said Joe Bartley, in the peniteutlary, is he most powerful republican in the state, because his friends are the leaders of that party. He does not believe the people of the state will return the republican party to power, at least not until it has had a longer period of probation; and closed his address with an appeal for harmony among the fusion elements, and referring to Bryan as the leader now at the front wearing the stripes of the soldier, a reference which produced an enthusiastic demonstration on the part of the convention. Judge Howard for Chairman.

The committee on permanent organization reported in favor of Edgar Howard of Papillion as permanent chairman, and O. W. Palm of Lancaster as permanent secretary, with the other two secretaries as as sistants. The report was adopted. Mr. Howard was escorted to the platform and made one of his characteristic talks.

T. E. Bennett of York here appeared from the silver republican convention, announcing that that body had appointed a conference committee to consult with a like committee from the other conventions. The democrats voted that a committee of three be appointed and the chairman named H. D. Travis of Cass, J. M. Gilchrist of Otoe and R. L. Metcalf of Douglas. More speeches were called for and James Manahan of Lancaster, democratic candidate for the fusion nomination for congress in the First district, was presented. followed by Ed P. Smith, deputy attorney general, who received a rousing recention. J. C. Dahlman moved that the greetings of the conventions be sent to W. J. Bryan at Jacksonville and that Ed P. Smith draft the message. This was adopted with a hour named and then walted until the delegates arrived. Ed P. Smith read the following telegram which he sent to W. J. Bryan behest of the convention: "The democrats of Nebraska in convention assembled instruct me to send hearty greetings and pledge their united efforts to make the gallant colonel of the Third the future commander-in-chief.' The report of the conference committee was presented and was generally met with approval, especially that portion requiring a majority vote in each convention to secure a nomination. A committee was immediately appointed to notify the other conventions of the adoption of the report.

W. H. Thompson read the report of the committee on resolutions. They express egret over the death of John McMaunigal of Lancaster county; send greeting to the soldiers fighting for Cuba's independence and pledge the president hearty support and co-operation; express pride in the demogratic leader, W. J. Bryan; renew allegiance to the platform of 1896 and to the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1; demand that all money shall be legal tender and issued by the government; oppose the issuance of interest-bearing bonds, but favor issuing greenbacks; denounce the Dingley bill and favor the income tax; favor a lib eral pension policy; favor a maximum freight law; arbitration for labor trouble and election of United States senators by the people; pledge support to Senator Allen in his candidacy for re-election; endorse the state officials and their acts; support the right of the legislature to enact law upon any subject not expressly prohibited by the constitution; favor the re-districting of the state that more fair representation may be had in the legislature; favor the initiative and referendum, where it is practicable; denounce the republican party on all lines; and appeal for the votes of the people. The report was adopted.

W. S. Shoemaker of Douglas read a resdution calling on the railroads to make better rates for the Transmississippi Exposition, which was adopted.

New State Committee.

The convention elected a new state committee as follows: First district, J. H. Moorehead, Falls City; Second, district, W. H. Kelliger, Auburn: Third district, E. D. Marnell, Nebraska City; Fourth district, F J. Morgan, Plattsmouth; Sixth district, J J. O'Connor, O. J. Pickard, Lee Herdman

Logan, Stockville; Thirtieth district, T. H. McAvoy, North Platte. J. C. Dahlman of Chadron was re-elected chairman of the state committee by acclamation and Lee Herdman of Omaha was elected secretary and C. S. Jones of Lancaster treasurer in the same manner.

The announcement that the populists had adopted the report of the conference committee was greeted with cheers. Senator Allen came upon the stage and when he was introduced to the convention the delerates stood up and waved their hats and handkerchiefs. He thanked the democrats for the help given in his election as senator and for the support received during his service. He then discussed political issues at great length.

Smyth Nominated.

The convention voted to proceed to th nomination of governor. The names of C Smythe of Douglas county and Edgar Howard of Sarpy were presented. Roll call was ordered, resulting as follows: Smyth 439; Howard, 139; Bryan, 39; John R Thompson, 20: W. H. Thompson, 11: Ed F Smith, 16; W. G. Hastings, 8; Judge W.

Before the result was announced a repor came from the silver republicans giving the result of the first formal ballot. Edgar Howard moved, before the result of the vote was announced, that the nomina tion of C. J. Smyth be made unanimous This was carried with cheers and Mr. Smyth was given a rousing reception when introduced to the convention, when he returned thanks for the honor conferred. The announcement of the result of the first formal ballot in the populist convention and the second formal in the silver epublican convention were received with ut demonstration. The convention engaged in a wrangle over the question of taking another ballot. A unanimous vote had been given C. J. Smyth, but it was felt by some hat the ballot showing the detailed should be sent to the other conventions Delegates in all parts of the house sough the recognition of the chair, but out of the confusion a new call of the roll was ordered, resulting as follows:

Smyth, 653; Howard, 9; Edmisten, 18 Ed P. Smith, 2; Poynter, 5; Weir, 3, The scattering vote was cast by Lancaste amid catcalls from Douglas. A motion was made to make the votunanimous and the whole subject was dis cussed over again. Delegates contended that the vote should be sent to the other conventions as cast, while others held tha such action would show the democrats to be weakening. Ed P. Smith called attention to the fact that all the counties save Laneaster voted for C. J. Smyth and that county voted for two populists. This, he said, would leave the impression that the convention was breaking from its own nominee in favor of a populist. Senator Gondring of Platte said it was time the democrats were demanding their rights in this state. He said they were willing to vote for populists for congress and for United States senator, but they were entitled to recognition on the state ticket. He wanted the convention to stand solidly for C. J. Smyth until the beginning of next week if necessary. Lancaster changed its vote solidly fo Smyth, but some of the delegates demanded a poll of the delegation. They were hissed down, however, and the vote, now unanimous, was ordered sent to the other conventions.

A report from the silver republican con vention announced the nomination of William Neville by that body. Joseph Oberfelder moved that the secretary cast 701 votes for C. J. Smyth for governor, which should be the third ballot, and it prevailed.

Jay Burrows brought a report from the populist convention that W. A. Poynter had been nominated for governor and the aunouncement was received in silence. Several motions were made to adjourn till morning, but all were defeated. I. J. Dunn moved a call of the roll for another formal ballot on governor, which prevailed. A motion immediately followed instructing Order was restored temporarily that a the secretary to cast the vote of the conven-committee might be appointed to notify the tion for C. J. Smyth. Before this vote was taken a report was read from the silver republicans announcing the nomination of W. A. Poynter, which received some applause. Dr. Hipple here stated that C. J. Smyth was in consultation with representatives of the other conventions and asked that the pending roll call be suspended for ten minutes. This action was taken. Mr. Smyth appeared almost immediately and addressing the convention said he be-Heved the time had come for the delegates to change their candidate and take some one who would be stronger, and go to some populist whom they believed they could elect. There were repeated calls of "Stark" and the roll call was ordered. While the ballot was being taken Senator Gondring nomina ted Edgar Howard and urged the democrats to present him to the other conventions. The roll call was made amid great confusion and resulted as follows: Howard, Poynter, 47; Stark, 116; Edmisten, 5; John R. Thompson, 14; Dunn, 1; Bryan, 1.

A motion to make the nomination unan imous was howled down and the Platte ounty delegates protested vigorously against this conduct, as they were instructed to vote all the time for a democrat and wanted the convention to be a unit. The motion was laid on the table by a big majority and the detailed vote of the ballot was sent to the other convention.

FREE SILVER REPUBLICANS MEET. Representation Runs About 1 in 10 of

What the Call Provided. LINCOLN, Aug. 2 .- (Special.)-The siler republicans met at the Windsor hotel at :15 and were called to order by Frank T. Ransom. After reading of the call Judge E. W. Hale of Butler county was made temporary chairman, receiving ninety-three votes as against eleven votes for Mr. Girard of Platte county. Judge Hale was conducted to the platform and spent some time in telling why he is a member of the ree silver convention

Charles Wooster of Merrick county was chosen temporary secretary in spite of his protests, but refused to make a speech. H. R. Greenfield, the colored delegate from Douglas county, was made assistant secreary. The temporary organization was made permanent and there being no contests all delegates present were declared entitled to sents. By motion the delegates present were authorized to cast the full vote or their respective counties.

The chairman appointed two committees of three each to confer with the other conventions as to a plan of procedure. Peters of Lancaster, Carr of Douglas and Girard of Platte were sent to confer with the populists, and Bennett of York, Lamb of Saunders and Weaver of Richardson to meet the democrats.

A committee of seven was appointed to draft a platform and pass upon other resolutions. One delegate was taken from each congressional district, except in the Sixth, which had no delegates present. Ransom of Douglas was named chairman, with Hibner from the First district, Salisbury from the Second, Lane, Third; Bush, Fourth; Lyman, Fifth, and the Sixth to be filled.

Captain Starr of Jefferson made a short speech in which he urged the committee to refrain from killing the party with a ong-winded platform. During the wait for the conference committee report W. D. Gregory of Omaha was called to the platform and in a lengthy talk traced the money question from the Roman empire down to Nebraska in 1898.

A resolution was introduced favoring the equalization of the pay of soldiers, raising the pay of privates to living wages and cutting down the salary of commissioned of-ver republicans must have a place on the state ticket. Captain Starr of Jefferson was opposed to demanding what had not yet been refused.

This brought on a heated discussion or both sides of the question. Another delegate from Jefferson declared against the resolution, because he believed the other fusionists intended to deal on the square with this branch of the party.

Cyrus Lindell, a Lancaster county colored man, who was an employe of the last legislature and who is now holding a good job under the Nebraska exposition board at Omaha, said he had suffered more sacrifices through his adherence to silver republican principles than any other member of the party and he favored a resolution demanding a share of the state ticket. Exessive modesty is not generally favored, it being conceded that neither the populists nor democrats are thus overburdened. Ransom spoke against postponing his resolu and said that nobody denied that Richardson county had been well represented at the state house, but other portions of the state were entitled to representation on this ticket. The resolution was amended to authorize conference committee to use all honorable means for securing a share of the spoils, and was finally adopted. A resolution opposed to the use of railroad passes was read and referred to a committee for consideration.

Mr. Reed, W. V. Allen's law partner was invited to come forward and improved the opportunity to boom Senator Allen for a further lease on his present job. This started the candidate ball rolling and E. L. Fulton of Pawnee, who wants to represent his district in congress, his county in the legislature or himself in the county, was given a chance. He roasted the republican party to a turn and declared that even a weak ticket would easily beat the repubicans this fall.

E. A. Gilbert of York got up and enumerated his various beliefs, among them being his opposition to passes. The applause following this declaration was not as hearty as should be expected from a fusion convention. And the delegates took a recess to 7:30.

After supper the convention adopted the conference report. On calling the roll for the appointment of members of the state central committee it developed that only thirty out of the ninety counties were represented in the convention. Dr. J. M. Ly man of Hastings was elected chairman of the state committee and A. H. Gleason of Lancaster secretary.

A ballot for governor was taken, which Beall 12, Ransom 37, Gregory 127, Bryan 25, Stark 19, Thompson 13, Poynter 9, Edmisten 9, Andrews 21, Watson 10, Howard 2, Weir 2, Neville 5, Yeiser 33. The votes for the three last named were cast the battle of July 3 has removed any doubt Peace conditions require Spain to pay the costs of war, value of the battleship Maine and its armament and an adequate sum as damages. The adoption of the initiative and eferendum as a constitutional amendment is favored. Section 13 is "We favor reduction of railroad freight and passenger rates and the complete abolishment of the present custom of granting favors to persons by fur-

Fusion Convention.

FALLS CITY, Neb., Aug. 2 .- (Special.)-The democrats, populists and free silver republicans held their county convention in this city Monday. They met in different halls and after going through the general routine of business a committee of three from each convention was appointed as a conference committee to determine how the ticket was to be divided. The result was that the democrats were to have one representative and the state senator; the silver epublicans one representative and the populists one representative and the county at torney. Following is the ticket nominated Representatives, Warren Hutchings, silver republican; A. D. Humberger, populist, and Jerry Fenton, democrat. County attorney, Jule Schoenheit, populist. The senatorial delegation was instructed to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Ralph Clark for that office.

Everything was running along nicely in the democratic convention until a resolution was offered to instruct the delegates to the state convention for the nomination of J. F. Walsh of this county for the office of state auditor, should that nomination be left to the democrats.

It seems Richardson county has anothe candidate for the same office in the person of Charles Loree of Falls City, and a lik resolution was offered in his favor. This took the convention somewhat by surprise and the resolutions were laid on the table and the delegates go uninstructed. J. F. Walsh then got the floor and stated his position, saying he did not want to create dis ruption in the party, but as he was a candidate for state auditor he would be much pleased to have the delegation from his county at his back. Many democrats are not satisfied because they think they did not get enough places on the ticket. The convention as a whole was not very harmonious. A county central committee for the coming year was selected, with J. H. Morehead as chairman.

ELWOOD, Neb., Aug. 2 .- (Special.) -The independents of Gosper county met in convention Saturday and nominated W. Miller for county attorney, William Umberger for commissioner of the First district. CHAPPELL, Neb., Aug. 2 .- (Special.) The republican county convention was held here yesterday and the following delegates F. C. Fretz of Ewing, George E. Baird of were chosen to the state convention: F. P. Bartley, O. H. Tracy and George E. Baird Morgan, Fred Sudman and A. B. Wynes. The delegates go uninstructed.

BEATRICE, Neb., Aug. 2 .- (Special Telegram.)-The Gage county republican convention, which was held here today, was characterized throughout with the enthusiasm of a presidential year. Every township was represented by full delegations. Nominations were made by acclamation in every instance, the ticket being as follows: County attorney, Samuel Rinaker; state senator F. N. Prout; representatives, W. E. Chittenden, Thomas E. Hibbert and George A. Jones: chairman of county central committee, W. C. Dorsey. The resolutions pre sented by the committee were adopted with cheers and waving of flags. By unanimous vote Hon. W. S. Bourne, mayor of Beatrice was endorsed for the congressional nomination and by a unanimous vote Hon-George A. Murphy was endorsed for the nomination for lieutenant governor. No instructions were given the state delegation on the governorship, but a pronounced sentiment prevails in favor of Judge Hayward, both in the convention and among the delegates to the state convention.

Fireproof Wood for War Ships. WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.-Fireproof wood is again in full favor in the navy, Secretary Long having today issued an order requiring it for the decks of the battleships and monitors, the only place from which it had been excluded by preceding orders on account of some commanders' reports of dampness. The secretary has decided that as to the importance of protecting war ships from fire by the best means within reach. so he will appoint a board to consist o a line officer, a naval constructor and chemist to examine reports coming from officers commanding ships fitted with fire-

HEARD ABOUT TOWN. TEPLE TEPLETE TEPLETE TEPLETE

"The Mexicans as a people have little sympathy with Spain or Spaniards," said Albino R. Nuncio, the representative of the Mexican government at the exposition. "In the City of Mexico there are many Spaniards, Spanogle; Colfax, E. B. McCalla; Cuming, but they are not so plentiful in the provinces. The Spaniards who are in the capital city come there mostly when young and make fortunes with the intention of returning to Europe or marrying a wealthy Mexican woman. Many of the Spaniards are pawnbrokers and dealers in provisions and are hated by the natives because o their greed and unfairness in business deal ings. They are in Mexico merely to make money, do not expect to remain there and do not care how they gain wealth.

"A great many of my customers in Chicago and throughout Illinois are discussing the Transmississippi with a great deal of interest and expect to come to Omaba as soon as the weather is more settled. September and October seem to be the month which most people have set for coming and they will come in great numbers then with out question," said C. W. Munroe, who is in Omaha in the interest of a Chicago whole sale house. "The exposition is certaining very beautiful and merits a good attendance It is much like the Columbian exposition in general outline, but the details have been worked out very differently and it certainly is no less beautiful than its grea predecessor.
